

WESTERN WASHINGTON REPEATER ASSOCIATION

Our antennae system looking from the ground. The VHF/UHF dipoles are mounted to the main tower and are sticking out to the tower right in the picture under an A-frame shaped protective ice shield just above it.

Looking east with Puget Sound in the background.